

REMARKS

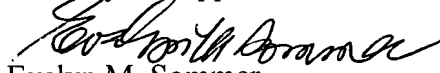

With respect to the Examiner's requirement for restriction, applicant hereby elects the invention designated I drawn to a method of making compound claim 1. Applicant reserves his right to further prosecute the non-elected inventions II and III in duly filed divisional applications.

The Examiner has indicated that in the event invention II drawn to a method of use, an election of species would be required. As invention II was not elected, no further election of species is required.

Action on the merits of the elected invention is now respectfully requested.

Respectfully Submitted
